UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE

In re: ADAM GROSSMAN , Debtor.	Case No. 10-19817 SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATION OF KARMA L. ZAIKE IN RELATION TO MOTION TO APPROVE SETTLEMENT OF ISSUES RELATING TO 868 MONTCREST DRIVE, REDDING, CALIFORNIA

Karma L. Zaike, declares under penalty of perjury of the laws of the State of Washington as follows:

1. On Wednesday, May 30, 2012, I received the following message recorded on my voice mail:

> Message received at 2:56 p.m.
> Hi Ms. Zaike, it's Mark Wilson calling. I am new counsel for, um, Adam Grossman in the Court of Appeals case. I'm filing a motion today, uh, an emergency motion, for permission for leave to file a reply brief and to, uh, and to, request oral argument in this case. I am going to file that today. I will send you an e-mail copy. It's probably too lengthy to send you a fax. But you know the hearing on the merits is on June 5, 2012, so there is not enough time for me to, to note a regular motion, uh, but we definitely want to file a reply brief and I'm asking the court to give us leave to do that and I'll send you the motion where, uh, we're requesting that. My number is 206-567-9826. Please call if you have any questions, uh, and expect, uh, that e-mail today.

2. As of 12:45 p.m. on Thursday, May 31, 2012, I have not received any documents or e-mails from Mr. Wilson. If Mr. Wilson does file a motion on behalf of Mr. Grossman which is granted, there will be another delay in the appellate court issuing a decision.

3. In a routine check of the Appellate Court docket, I note that a Notice of Appearance was filed on May 29, 2012. (Exhibit A) I have not been provided a copy of that document in violation of Washington Civil Rule 5.

4. On May 23, 2012, Mr. Grossman sent correspondence directly to me stating the following:

> I believe I may be able to divert funds intended for legal to DCS for one month today if I didn't think had a hearing next week and funds for two months to DCS cleared and payable (cashiers check) Wednesday or Thursday of next week in addition to that. Exhibit B.

5. There were no state court hearings during the "next week" referred to by Mr. Grossman (i.e. May 29 – June 1).

Signed and dated this 31st day of May, 2012 in Seattle, WA.
